It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA receives Deposits of from Five Patacones per Annum up to any amount in Weekly, Monthly, or Yearly Instalments.

PALMAM QUI MERUIT FERAT.

PENEDOS VEGETABLE SYRUP.
THE MOST CERTAIN AND SPEEDY REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR ALL DISORDERS OF THE CHEST, ASTHMA AND CONSUMPTION.

No other diseases sweep away so many thousands as ASTHMA and CONSUMPTION, and not because of any want of means of checking them, on their first approach if those attacked would adopt proper remedies early, but, unfortunately, these are neglected, and recourse is not had until the disease is firmly established in the Lungs, from whence (until lately) Physicians had not discovered any means of dislodging it. Professor Penedo's Syrup supplies now that DESIDERATUM to sufferers, as the rapidly extending fame of this Preparation testifies it.

COLDS, PAIN IN THE CHEST, SHORTNESS OF BREATH, PHLEGM, AND INFLUENZA.

A difficulty of breathing, or a sense of tightness or pain in THE CHEST after exertion, a cough or an expectoration of phlegm, however slight at first, will surely prove the germ from which one or other fatal diseases will take their rise, if not early removed, in such cases, must be taken three times a-day, as directed, or oftener, according to the urgency of the symptoms, and this will be found sufficient for the cure of all recent affections of the Lungs.

COUGHS.

This severe and most dangerous disease very frequently becomes most troublesome, which, if not ending in Consumption or Asthma, proves most distressing and weakening up to the patient.

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP

should be taken until it is entirely removed, which it will speedily do if taken regularly.

WEAKNESS OF THE VOICE AND HOARSENESS.

In all cases where the diseases have occurred suddenly from Colds, exertion of the Voice, &c.

PENEDO'S VEGETAALE SYRUP

has been most successful in effecting a radical cure in cases which have existed many months.

PENEDO'S VEGETABLE SYRUP

is of the highest utility in all diseases of the Chest and Lungs. This fact is proved by the many testimonials handed to the Proprietor by men of acknowledged ability and reputation.

The following certificate is one of many that have been received by the Professor:—

Rio Janeiro, May 1, 1869.
Professor Penedo:

Dear Sir,

I feel bound to acknowledge the marvellous results effected by the Syrup, called

"VEGETABLE DE PENEDO,"

In the Province of Rio Grande, and it is, in my opinion, a most valuable medicine in all cases of Pulmonic Affections on Diseases of the Chest, many of my patients, who have had occasion to use your Specific for these complaints, have assured me that they invariably derived the greatest benefit.

THE BOLSA OF BUENOS AYRES.

The recent fraud perpetrated on the Bolsa of Buenos Ayres by Gomez Pereira, a well known speculator in national securities, is now notorious. To the credit of that institution and of the community of which Gomez was a member, we must say that nothing of the kind ever before occurred in Buenos Ayres. The history of the fraud we have already given to our readers; fraud, in the fullest term of the word, we must stamp it, for with the ability to meet his losses. This man has fled taking with him a fortune little short of two hundred thousand patacons. The unfortunate brokers who acted for him are now called upon to make good his liabilities, which are variously estimated at about four thousand ounces.

It is nothing wonderful or strange that in a city like Buenos Ayres there should be a stock exchange for speculators. Exchanges are to be found in every mart in Europe, and speculation, no matter how much attended with risk, can in every land be carried on in a strictly legitimate sense; public convenience and the law of the land respect the business, and contracts on the Bolsa are enforced by law; but the speculation that has been going on for the last six months on the stock-exchange was of so wild a character that it has in a measure brought discredit on an institution which whether for better or worse is a necessity in every commercial community. The capital of the noted speculators, the responsibility of Bolsa frequenters, even the exact limit which the market will bear, are all known to every tyro in Buenos Ayres. The place is so small, the community so limited, that we all know more or less how our neighbour stands. It is therefore a just source of astonishment that when bonds were driven up by half a dozen of speculators to 69, and the business marked on the board in a single day outstripped even the daily sales of Consols on the first money market in the world, people did not foresee what must be the inevitable result.

Yet, in contemplating this financial catastrophe, the full extent of which none can measure, we perceive that the elements of disaster spring from far other causes than the dishonored conduct of a runaway speculator. We have an easy money market, not the result of national prosperity, but rather of national prostration. We have a flushed artificial trade, owing to the Paraguayan war, which, while it enriches one or two individuals, impoverishes the country. We have in a word, the city wealthy, with the country poor, and surplus capital, quitting the legitimate channels of investment, to be locked up in national bonds for the sake of a trumpery monthly interest. Have we not seen two millions of national bonds bought and sold in a single day on the Bolsa, at prices ranging from 65 to 68, whilst estancia lands, sheep-farms, and stock are knocked down by auctioneers at fully 70 per cent. under their intrinsic value? Millions there were for a withered paper that produces nothing; whilst not a dollar could be raised to start an acre of wheat or a square of Indian corn. No wonder that Argentine credit should have been upset on the Bolsa last Wednesday, when capitalists, politicians, and speculators forsake the avenues of legitimate gain to make a fortune in five minutes.

The sheepfarmer, the estanciero, and the chacrero, pine around their humble homesteads, hardly eking out with honest toil sufficient to support existence; they see their properties steadily depreciating, and on the land where but a few years ago they were prosperous, contented, and happy, to-day they are the struggling helots of the Republic. Yet, in sight of all this, they read in the papers of the progress of the nation, of the increased value of its securities, and of the general goaheadism of the River Plate.

Bonds at 69, and wool not worth the cost of shearing—money so plenty in Buenos Ayres that house property and national bonds were insufficient; the gold had to be shipped to Montevideo and Rio for investment, and yet at the same time, the poverty-stricken campmen without a dollar. Is it a wonder, we ask, that in the presence of such a rotten state of affairs, a noted speculator should step upon the scene, buy up everything, drive up everything, and then, when he had won the pool, decamp?

The present attitude of the market is due, not to the runaway Gomez, but to the parties who tempted by the insidious gains of well paid and what they considered well secured loans, advanced the money to foment the speculation—and the bond market to-day presents a situation which few are willing to admit, namely that some four or five millions of bonds have as it were to be re-mitted, inasmuch as they have been taken from the hands of bonafide holders, and are to-day held by parties who are unwilling to put their capital into them, but who have advanced to third parties large sums for which the bonds were hypothecated: these funds therefore in reality belong to no person, they must be thrown on the market to realize the debt for which they are the guarantee, and a new investing public has to be found, unless holders are willing to allow them to return to their original owners at their own valuation.

The loss on the Bolsa, caused by this National Bond scandal can only be estimated in millions. It falls upon a circle much wider than many people imagine, and will have a direct influence on the general tone of our money market. Let us hope that the experience that it teaches will be productive of some good, and that capitalists; merchants and bankers will henceforward be very wary how they put all their eggs into one basket.

MR. BECK AND THE SWISS COLONIES.

The traveller who visits these countries for the first time and who has the good fortune to pass through the flourishing colonies of Santa Fé invariably returns to Europe with the settled conviction that agricultural industry can nowhere offer finer inducements than in the River Plate, and that the country only needs a million emigrants like those of San Carlos, Esperanza, and San Geronimo, to become happy and prosperous. Strange to say, the majority of people in Buenos Ayres know little or nothing of the above colonies, and even the Members of Congress are lamentably ignorant of their value or importance. Suffice it to say that these three thousand colonists have 46,000 acres under tillage, and raise 100,000 quintals of grain per annum. Yet these colonies are of a few years' growth, and are chiefly the result of one man's steady and persevering labors.

The press of Buenos Ayres has from time to time teemed with glowing accounts of some general, or hero, or poet that has commanded public admiration for a fortnight, but it has ignored the services of Mr. Beck-Bernard, although this gentleman has devoted all his efforts to the cause of emigration, and spent all his fortune for the same end. In 1855 Mr. Beck met D. Aaron Castellanos at Basle and found for him most of the 200 Swiss families for the first colony of Esperanza. A clerk of the house of Beck & Co. was sent out with the colonists to see what Santa Fé was like; at the time the Government was in the hands of José Maria Cullen, a great friend of European colonists, and the clerk reported so very favorably on the new country at his return to Switzerland, that Mr. Beck entered zealously into the idea and removed with all his family to the River Plate. He arrived in Santa Fé in the beginning of 1857, just in time to prevent the colony of Esperanza from breaking up, for the first season had proved most disastrous. Mr. Beck provided the colonists with seed at his own expense and encouraged them to persevere: a good harvest followed, and the colony entered on a carer of prosperity.

In 1858 Mr. Beck founded, entirely at his own expense, the colony of San Carlos, the most flourishing that now exists in the Argentine Republic; but he was ruined in the enterprise, for the expenses were much larger than he had anticipated and he had to transfer everything to his creditors, who are now making a good thing out of the lands they sell.

General Urquiza also availed himself of Mr. Beck's influence in forming the colony of San José, nearly opposite Paysandú, and obtained through him the first settlers for that place. In 1864 Mr. Beck returned to Europe having received from President Mitr an appointment as Emigration agent in Switzerland with a salary of £25 per month, but no allowance for printing or travelling expenses. Nevertheless he published a book in French and a smaller one in German upon this country, besides having fourteen newspapers in Switzerland and Germany enlisted in his favor. Meantime the Government, the Press, and the Immigration Committee seemed to forget even his existence, for they did not even send him a newspaper.

The accession of Pres. Sarmiento gave promise of so much progress that Mr. Beck resolved to explain to him personally his views regarding emigration. Sor Balcarce encouraged him to come out to B. Ayres for the same purpose, and hence the object of his present visit. We cannot say what views the National Government may have in the matter, or how far the state of the Finances will allow grants for emigrants. But, one thing at least is clear, that Mr. Beck is entitled to the highest regard from the Government and the public, and that his salary of £300 per annum is neither commensurate with the services he renders the country, nor the fortune that he spent in establishing the Swiss Colonies. We should much regret that a man like Mr. Beck should be allowed to return to Europe with a feeling that the country was ungrateful to him or forgetful of his meritorious labors. He leaves in a few days for Santa Fe to visit his countrymen, by whom he is so much respected. We will probably take passage for Europe shortly after, and we hope the Press and the Argentine Government will give him proofs of their esteem on the occasion of his departure, perhaps for the last time, from these shores.

THE DOM PEDRO II RAILWAY.

One of the finest Railways on this or any other continent is the Dom Pedro Segundo Railway. It rivals the best railway extant in Europe or the States, and is as signal a triumph of engineering skill as it is a monument of national progress. Here in the River Plate, where we have level plains, and tunnelling is unknown, we find it a difficult matter to connect our Provincial cities and country towns with the seaboard. But in Brazil the task is to fill up valleys and perforate mountains; and the tunnels on the Dom Pedro Segundo Railway, some fourteen in number, are the theme of universal admiration with travellers from every land. We took the train at Entre Rios at a little after noon, and arrived at Rio Janeiro at 6 p.m., a distance of over 120 miles. The stations are neat, airy, and unpretentious, and for the first fifty miles we ran through the great coffee district of Brazil; with a crashing noise we dash over iron bridges, manufactured at the Maua Arsenal, in the bay of Rio, and which span noble rivers—the like of which are not to be found in the Plate. At about 2 o'clock in the afternoon we were surprised to find the guard of the train lighting the lamps of the first class carriages; but soon we discovered the reason, for we were entering the district of the tunnels. The first tunnel we passed through was short and attracted no particular notice, beyond the fact that the train runs clean under a mountain; but the grand tunnel, over a mile long, and which takes the train, going at full speed, six minutes to get through, filled us with astonishment. Shall we ever get out? was the feeling of myself and wife, as we held our breath in this road, under the world as it were. The noise was awful, and from the carriage window we could see nothing but the massive rock of the mountain under which we passed. At last we emerged from this subterranean road, but what was our dismay to find that we were spinning along at the edge of a precipice so deep, that we could not even see the bottom Behind us was the huge mountain through which we passed, and which reared its head some thousands of feet to the skies. There was nothing for it but to lean back in the seat and close one's eyes to the danger. Mrs. Mulhall felt like fainting, but Miss Basto, who had been frequently over the road, expressed no fear; yet, really, it was an awful sight, one slip off the Barlow rail, and train and passengers would go spinning into the ravine. The grand tunnel has cost hundreds of lives and millions of mil-reis; but 'tis done, and well done, like every public work that we saw in Brazil; and there is no better managed road extant, and with fewer accidents, than this noble railway. At Sapopemba we saw a sugar plantation of Baron Maua, and as we approached the city we were struck with the beauty and elegance of the suburbs in this quarter. The station or terminus is about twice the size of the Parque Station in Buenos Ayres, and boasts of every accommodation. The following details respecting this magnificent railroad may be found interesting:—

The D. Pedro railroad runs from Rio de Janiero to Chiador, a town beyond the junction of the Parahyba and Parahybuna rivers, a distance of 140 miles.

This road was begun in 1856 by a Brazilian company which, being unable to complete it, was obliged to solicit its purchase by the Government. It was complete in 1867 to its present terminus at Entre Rios. Its cost was about $27,000,000 (£2,700,000). Notwithstanding the experience of the world goes to show that Governments are incapable of properly administering enterprises of this kind, the D. Pedro II. railway is certainly excellently managed, and so far from being expensive to the Government is an important source of revenue. In 1867 its clear income was about 5 per cent. on the cost, and in 1868 about 6 per cent.

The following table will show its progress since it was opened to traffic:—

YEAR.	EXPENSES.		RECEIPTS.
1859	606,870	....	720,900
1860	611,402	....	920,705
1861	688,506	....	1,073,731
1862	800,934	....	964,996
1863	849,421	....	969,621
1864	964,199	....	1,211,615
1865	1,088,183	....	1,756,148
1866	834,057	....	1,848,783
1867	1,083,284	....	2,506,836

Nett revenue of 1867 1,422,434 mil reis.

In the last six months of 1868 (I have not been able to find the statistics of the whole year) the revenue amounted to 1,656,196 m.r. while its expenses were 882,823 m.r., including 134,960 m.r. employed on the construction of the branch to Porto Novo da Cunha.

During the present year the trade of the road has augmented wonderfully, owing principally to the contract made by the company "Uniao e Industria," by which that company delivers to the railroad at Entre Rios all the freight which it transports over its macadamised road, instead of sending it, as heretofore, to Petropolis to be shipped to Rio on the Petropolis railroad. The receipts of the road for the first three months of 1869 amounted to 1,103,275$535 against 609,504$995 during the same period of 1868, while the expenses for the first months of 1869 were only 394.112$800 against 294,225$765 for that period of the previous year. The liquid revenue for the three months of 1869 was 709,273 $027, that is at the rate of over 10 per cent. per annum on the cost of the road.

The fares for freight and passages are not exorbitant, the former varying according to classification from 3½d. to 10d, per ton and mile, and the latter from 1d. to 2d. per mile. The road is of great utility to the people of the province, and also to those of Minas, and its importance will be greatly increased when good branch roads are constructed between it and the centres of production. The branch to Porto Novo de Cunha, now in course of construction and already finished to the Minas line, will connect it with a very important agricultural districts.

A local company is constructing a branch to Valencia, and the last Provincial Legislature voted it a loan of $200,000. It also voted a guarantee of 6 per cent. interest on the cabs subcribed to a projected comdany whose object is to construct a braneh to Barra Mansa, some distance above on the Parahyba river.

The objective point of the D. Pedro II. Railroad is the S. Francisco river in the Province of Minas. It will perhaps be many years before it reaches it, but sooner or later it will open to the "Mississippi of Brazil" the great future to which it is undoubtedly, destined.

COLFAX.

We are happy to state that there is not the least foundation for the report spread town here, since the day before yesterday, and to which we made allusion in our yesterday's issue, relative to the condition of the horse Colfax. We are informed, by competent persons who have been to see him yesterday. that all that is the matter with him proceeds from the severe training he has been subjected to and his having been tied up. Mr. Herrera the owner of the stable where Mr. Chiarini's horses are standing, fully corroberates this opinion, and it is perfectly evident, to any person who has the slightest knowledge of horses, that if they go on giving him the treatment he receives, he stands a good chance of soon dying. If the horse, as stated had been drugged so severely as to endanger his life, it must have been done before the race, and in that case how is it that Mr. Chiarini, and the people who had charge of him did not find it out. Mr. Chiarini might have refused to run, forfeiting his deposit, 2,000 patacones, and all bets would have been off. We have so much faith in Mr. Chiarini's, gentlemanly feeling that we readily exonerate him from any share in the authorship of so stupid and senseless an invention, as that Colfax owed his defeat to any unfair means.

MONTEVIDEO.

Thursday.

The times are sadly out of joint: for some days past we seemed to be on the brink of another revolution, especially when Bustamante resigned the post of Prime Minister, for he was the only man with sufficient firmness to keep down the elements of disorder. It seems now that he consents to remain in office, which causes much satisfaction. The rumor that Sr. Rodriguez had also resigned the portfolio of Foreign Affairs seems devoid of foundation.

The tramway to Paso Molino began working on Tuesday, and the cars now run with all due regularity.

The Bourgogne left to-day, taking among her passengers certain gentlemen who are gone in pursuit of the broker that has run away from Buenos Ayres with a quantity of money.

The Commissary of the Manga has captured a fellow named Bernardo Broyes who stole 10,000$ from the Bishop of Cuyo en route for Rome.

The Fiscal Committee will proceed to-morrow to burn the notes, plates, &c of the Mauá paper-currency, according to the late convention.

The visit of D. Juan Carlos Gomez to this city, after many years' absence, is said by the 'Tribuna' to have reference to a scheme for annexing this country to the Argentine Republic.

The Captain of the Port has sent a letter to the captains of the English ship Berlin and Spanish barque Abnegacion for the assistance rendered by them to the English barque Ottodini in the recent gale.

The Government has sent a garrison of 60 men to the Cerro, the fort of which had hitherto no other occupants than an Italian boatman and his family.

A photographer from Buenos Ayres, for sometime resident at Minas, committed suicide recently in that town, or is supposed to have done so, for beside his corpse was a letter stating that he had drunk some of his chemicals by mistake; he left his property to a friend in Buenos Ayres.

The Copernicus is hourly expected from Liverpool.

Trade is very dull; the accounts from the camp are merely a repetition of robberies and outrages.

BANK PANIC IN LIMA.

EARTHQUAKES IN ECUADOR.

Valparaiso, Sept. 17th 1869.

All Santiago was astir at a very early hour on the 10th instant in consequence of its being the day appointed for the departure of the Archbishop for Valparaiso, "en route" for Rome. The religious ceremony appropriate to the occasion took place in the Cathedral, which was crowded with a large and select congregation. The railway station was crowded to excess, and after some delay consequent upon the very defective arrangements that had been made, the Archbishop and his friends arrived alongside the cars, and as soon as the leave taking had been gone through, the train moved off amid cries of "viva el Arzobispo, viva Pio nono."

Lima, Sept. 4, 1869.

The Dreyfus loan continues to occupy public attention. In consequence of the Bank of Peru having refused to discount a draft by Dreyfus Brothers for the amount of the first instalment of the loan, the Minister of Finance immediately gave orders that no bank notes should be received in the Custom and other public offices, and that payment of those in depo it should be forthwith demanded. On the following morning a run upon all the banks commenced. The panic was very great both here and in Callao, but fortunately the banks were able to meet the demands upon them, and on the second day confidence was restored. It is calculated that the money withdrawn from the banks amounted to from $3,500,000, to $4,000,000. As soon as the run commenced, the principal foreign merchants sent to the banks all the coin they could muster, and in this way assisted most materially in restoring confidence. The banks did not confine themselves to changing their notes within doors, but they despatched clerks and agents through the streets in all directions with bags of money for the purpose of receiving their notes. Pasquinades have made their appearance in considerable abundance, and as an indication of the state of public opinion generally, nobody now appears to fear expressing hostility of the strongest kind against the present administration. It is asserted that the President himself has already an inkling that something will take place shortly. In all probability he will pay Chile a visit about next May or June.

The latest advices to hand from Ecuador are of the saddest kind. The country, still suffering from the fatal effects of the calamity of last year and torn by civil factions, appears to be doomed to witness a renewal of the disasters it has so lately experienced. The volcanos are said to be in a state of extraordinary activity, that of Cotopaxi especially, vomiting forth smoke, lava and ashes to such an extent that the crops and all kinds of vegetation in Machuchi are being rapidly destroyed. Frequent shocks of earthquake of an alarming nature have been experienced in several parts of the country, and the greater part of the inhabitants of Quito have abandoned the city, and are living in tents in its immediate vicinity. Banks of Hypothecation have been ordered to be founded, and it is hoped they will tend to ameliorate the present condition of affairs, which cannot well be worse. It is estimated that 10,000 Ecuadorians have been compelled to leave the country since the accession of Garcia Moreno to power, Some of them have taken refuge in New Granada, but by far the greater number are to be found in Peru. An active conspiracy, possessing numerous ramifications both in and out of the republic, is being carried on against the present administration, and it is not at all improbable that the country will shortly be called upon to sanction another new Constitution.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The America arrived in port yesterday morning. The report that Bustamante would resume office had a favourable effect, though the public view with great anxiety the movement of the troops to the Cerro and other precautions of a similar nature which Government felt bound to adopt within the last week. Business is quite as stagnant as reported for the last two months, the only dealings on the Bolsa are in paper, which shows a decided tendency to decrease in value, all other securities, such as they are, are completely neglected.

The allied forces consisting of some eight thousand men of all arms have advanced a short distance from the little town of Rosario in pursuit of Lopez. The fugitive President is stationed about forty leagues from the banks of the river, amongst mountain fastnesses where it must prove impossible to follow him. The Paraguayan leader is said to be using every effort to induce the Indians to assist him, and it is stated that he lately succeeded in effecting an exchange of 300 women for 300 men of a certain tribe to recruit his forces. An Argentine officer arrived in Asuncion from the army on the 16th inst. and states positively, at a council of war, the allied commanders had come to the conclusion that it was impossible to advance further in pursuit of the enemy and had resolved on a retreat.

Is Colfax alive or dead? was the great question of the day yesterday.—In the morning it was currently rumoured that the beast was dead, but towards noon it was stated that Mr Yateman, Captain Miller, and others had just come down from the stables, having seen Colfax alive, but lying down, and apparently bound for the Stygian shore. As far as we can understand, the horse's debility arises from over-training,—nothing more.—Some turfites, who took exception to our giving publicity to a current rumour on Thursday about this unfortunate horse, talked of challenging us, whereupon our much-esteemed friend, Mr Thomas Drysdale, very kindly offered to act as our second; and thus the matter ended.

The official and opposition papers are still engaged in discussing the financial state of the country. Their respective statements and estimates are so widely opposed that it is difficult to rely on any of them. The amount of the bonds now in circulation is variously stated, we believe the following to be the correct version. Issued deducting amortization $f. 12,823,900; of this amount the Provincial Bank holds $f. 5,000,000. 'Bienhechora del Plata' 600,000, Junta of Public Credit 295,000, leaving nearly six millions available for dealings on the Bolsa; much of this latter amount is held by large capitalists as an investment.

Generals Arredondo and Rivas arrived in this city yesterday from Rosario.

We deem it right to contradict the statement published yesterday morning by a colleague to the effect that the Sr. Gomez whose disappearance from the Bolsa transpired on Wednesday, was the late Manager of the Italian Bank; such is not the case.

We publish in another column a letter from Captain Cruickshank of the General Lee thanking Captain Berg of the Thoraldsen for the important services rendered to him on the occasion of the wreck of the former vessel off Lobos Island.

The French Consul at Rosario has instituted an enquiry into the deaths of Mons. Lefebre and his family, murdered during the late attack on the Santa Fe Colonists. The deceased was a French subject, and the manner of his death cannot fail to produce a great effect on his countrymen at home.

The play going community will hear with regret of the retirement of Madame Gabrielle from the boards of the French Theatre. It will prove most difficult to replace this talented actress, who in her 'repertoire' has fewer equals at present on our boards.

The driver of a public carriage fell from his seat on Wednesday at Moron while driving a party to the course; the wheels passed over his body killing him on the spot. This is the only accident reported during the day.

Wool brokers and barraqueros are looking more cheerful in the Plaza Once in consequence of the arrival of the first lots of this years clip. They come from San Vicente and Magdalena. Next week larger arrivals are expected from the same quarters.

Mr. Wheelwright leaves to-day for Rosario with the view of making arrangements for absenting himself for some time from business, in order to re-establish his health. Mr. Wheelwright has elected to go to Chile for this purpose, where he will remain for about six weeks.

The neighborhood of San Fernando has suffered severely from the late 'temporal.' All the crops sown on the island have been destroyed. The corpse of a sailor, supposed to belong to an Italian vessel, was picked up a few days ago in this locality. During the gale the river rose to within a few inches of the height attained during the Santa Rosa hurricane in 1860.

The 1st of November is named for the Municipal elections in the country towns of this Province.

Messrs. Weiss and Co., who have lately started a Mineral Water Manufactory in this city, have been permitted by Government to import all the machinery necessary for the purposes of their business duty free.

It appears by the Census returns that there are 576 English sailors included in the returns of the floating population.

The amount about to be paid to the army contractors, Srs. Lezica and Lanuz, for supplies to the army in Paraguay, is set down at $1,800,000 m/c.

The Municipality held important meetings on the 12th and 15th inst.—The project for raising a 35,000,000 loan was sanctioned, and a good deal of private business disposed of. Petitions for leave to erect lifting cranes in various establishments, and to run discharge pipes to the river from some of the 'lavaderos' were very properly rejected. Dr Rawson was appointed to the new ward in the Men's Hospital.

The annual general meeting of the British Library will take place on Thursday next, 28th inst. After the meeting the back numbers of various periodicals will be sold by auction.

Mr Billinghurst will sell by auction to-morrow (Sunday) the wreck of the schooner Crimea, which is aground about a mile from the Tigre. For particulars see our advertisement columns.

The Provincial Government has decreed a sum of $300,000, to be devoted to subsidising a steamer to run between this port and Bahia Blanca and Patagones.

An extent of six square leagues has been ceded to the Cacique Raminqueo and his tribe on the Western frontier, near Vallimanca.

News from the Far South is somewhat more cheering. The late 'seca' and epidemic caused heavy losses to the estancieros, but the sheep runs are now covered with pasturage, and the epidemic gone. Under the cheering influence of this better state of things, the Britishers in that quarter have started a Cricket Club, and had their first match last week. They intend challenging the best eleven of the Buenos Ayres Club before the summer is over.

The Port Captain at Asuncion has informed his brother functionary here that a large quantity of yerba has been surreptitiously shipped from Rosario (Paraguay) destined for sale in this city, and asking that an embargo may be laid on it should it arrive here.

The last ball given in the Coliseum in aid of the 'Invalidos' produced a net sum of $52,000 m/c, which has been handed to the Sociedad Filantropica by the Ball Committee.

That a policeman is never to be found when wanted is a maxim capable of almost universal application, but here in Buenos Ayres it is difficult sometimes to know a 'bobby' even when he is found (the Gavotti case to wit). To avoid any further abuses arising from the interference of unauthorised parties representing themselves as police agents, all the officials of the department shall in future carry badges, a supply of which has been ordered from Europe by the Provincial Government.

The cost to the police department for catching the gang of forgers lately taken into custody amounted to $6,540, a very moderate sum for such an important service.

A fearful suicide has been committed in Minas, Bo, by a photographer, who compounded a mixture from all the most deadly poisons used in his trade, and swallowed it. Letters found by the side of the corpse leave no doubt as to this being a case of 'felo-de-se.'

Letters from Asuncion report the population of that place as half starving: meat sells for twelve patacones per arrobe, and is scarce even at that price. The President of the Municipality has resigned, having found the difficulties of his post too much for him. Sr. Rivarola has returned to Asuncion from his tour through the departments, where he had gone to extend relief to the suffering families.

The 'Patria' of Rosario states that a policeman of that city received 500 lashes a few days ago for deserting from the force.

The Magellan of the Pacific line is expected in Montevideo on Tuesday, she leaves on that day for Liverpool, calling at Rio, Lisbon, St. Vincent and Bordeaux.

We hear with great pleasure of the intelligence and energy displayed by the actual head of the school department in the fulfilment of his duties. Since his nomination to this post, Sr. Estrada has introduced important reforms, and if he succeeds, as now seems probable, in solving the financial question, he will remove a difficulty which has been the stumbling block of all his predecessors. Last night he superintended an examination of candidates for directorship of Elementary School of S. Telmo. The competitors were two; both, we are happy to say, were well prepared, and behaved with great credit to themselves. While congratulating Mr. Coste, the successful candidate, we cannot fail making honorable mention of Mr. Palacios, and assure the vicinity of Chascomus, whence this young man comes, that their young schoolmaster is by no means deficient.

LOSS OF THE GENERAL LEE.

The English ship, General Lee, Capt. Cruikshank, from San Francisco to Liverpool, with a cargo of wheat, was caught in a hurricane on the 1st of August last, 500 miles west of Cape Horn, which capsized her, obliging the captain to cut away the mainmast, with the loss of the sails, boats, and rudder. The deck cabins, fore and aft, were also washed away. On the 6th and 7th she again received much damage from renewed bad weather.

On the 12th and 13th she again encountered bad weather, losing her mainyard and all her sails, leaving her utterly helpless, she having sprung a leak, and rapidly settling down.

On the 14th, at five o'clock in the morning, she fell in with the Thorswalden, 120 miles off the Island of Lobos, who took off the crew of the General Lee, 21 in number. The captain of the General Lee only consented to abandon his ship at the urgent representation of his officers.

THE GENERAL LEE.
Montevideo, Oct. 17, 1869.
To Captain A. Berg,
Danish Barque, 'Thorwaldsen.'

My dear Sir,

I hereby on the part of myself and ship's company beg most sincerely to return you thanks and best wishes for the very kind manner in which you acted towards us on the morning of 14th inst., when in a sinking condition on board of the British ship 'General Lee,' off the River Plate; and likewise for your very kind and courteous behaviour to us during our passage to this port.

Your kindness to me personally I shall ever remember with the deepest gratitude, and, although I trust I may never have the pleasure of rendering you the kindness while placed in a similar position to us, you may rely on it, nothing would give me more pleasure than at a future time to be able to prove the sincerity of, my dear Captain Berg,

Your very sincere friend,
W. C. CRUICKSHANK,
Master 'General Lee.'

MISCELLANEOUS.

Sir Roderick Murchison's opinion has recently been asked as to the fate of Dr. Livingstone, and especially with reference to Mrs. Burton's suggestion, in which her husband concurred, that the great traveller is probably held in captivity by the negro King of Cazembe. Sir Roderick is not at all despondent. He adheres to the theory he laid down at the anniversary of the Geographical Society, that the outlets from Lake Tanganyika flow westward to the Atlantic, and that Livingstone is following their course. The mighty Conco may be one of these outlets, and Livingstone will, Sir Roderick believes, again emerge, as he did after his first great journey, on the western shores of Africa.

Serious dissensions are said to prevail in the Italian Cabinet which have led to the resignation of Signor Ferraris, and will probably necessitate also the resignation of Signor Mordini and Signor Bargoni.

A story is told in a Paris paper of a new method for recovering one's debts. The other day a crowd gathered in the vicinity of the Odeon round a girl with a wooden leg, whom a gentleman at an adjoining window was apostrophising with loud cries and gesticulations. It turned out that the girl was a washerwoman who had gone to the gentleman to ask for payment of her bill, and finding that the money was not forthcoming she had seized her customer's wooden leg, which was lying in a corner, and had walked off, declaring that she would not return it till she was paid.

Ounces	400
Sovereigns	122½
Patacons	25
Nat. Bonds	59

The market has at last opened, and the sales to-day amounted to 335,300. Notwithstanding the depression caused by the Gomez fraud, prices went up to-day. Bonds opened for cash at 56⅝, and closed at 59, but few place much confidence in the present attitude of the market. Some three or four parties try to maintain prices, and bought to-day freely, but most people regard to-day's business as a mere flash in the pan, and the real state of the market will not be told until the end of the month, when the vencimientos are heavy.

Respecting the Gomez affair, there is nothing further known beyond the fact that last week he withdrew from one of our private banks 400,000 for which he paid cash, and which bonds were sold for cash through Mr. Gras, the broker. It is stated that Gomez is worth 400,000 pats and that since June last, he has made 150,000 patacones. The bills which he took from here were drawn on the house of Souza Irmao and Roche of Rio, by Messrs. Braga & Co. of this market Mr. C. Morales, who follows in pursuit of Gomez, received every assistance from the French Minister in Montevideo, who gave special orders to the captain of the Bourgogne to put on full steam, in order to catch the City of Limerick, which latter steamer took some gold at the last moment, supposed to be for account of Gomez.

The mail steamer Arnaiz offered for sale. The price asked is £40,000. She is an excellent steamer, and would suit the Government for the Argentine navy.

THE VERDICT OF HALF THE WORLD.—The entire Western Hemisphere pronounces Murray and Lanman's Florida Water the most delicious perfume for the boudoir, the ball-room; and the bath that chemistry has yet succeeded in extracting from living flowers. No empyreumatic oils, none of the coarse manufactured odiferants which enter into the composition of ordinary toilet waters defile this exquisite preparation. It contains the delightful fragrance of the petals and corols of rare aromatic flowers growing on the verge of the Northern Tropic, and combining the voluptuous fragrance of the tropical flora with the refreshing sweetness of the blossoms of the temperate zone. Greater care is exercised in its production than in the manufacture of any other perfume, and the floral material used is infinitely more fragrant. As there are counterfeits always, ask for the Florida Water prepared by Lanman and Kemp, New York.

SAVINGS BANK
BANK MAUA AND Co.
101--Cangallo--103
BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling. in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

A BOUQUE

VIOLETS and WATER LILIES,

Exhale an exquisite fragrance, agreeable to the most fastidious, but in the Florida Water of Murray and Lanman, it is not to these two floral beauties alone that we are confined; in it we have the full fragrance of a whole bouquet of blooming tropic flowers.

MOSS-ROSE and JASMIN,

Exquisite in their odors, are yet poor by comparison with the clouds of incense that arise from Murray and Lanman's Florida Water, so justly styled "The Queen of Floral Perfumes,"

ORANGE FLOWERS and HONEY-SUCKLE,

Delightful in the pure delicacy of their sweet breath, but faint and fading when compared with the refreshing and strengthening perfume of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water

PRIMROSES and HELIOTROPE,

Full of sweet perfume, and agreeable to many, but void of those important hygienic properties which make Murray and Lanman's Florida Water so welcome in the sick-room.

DAISIES and BUTTEROUPS,

Nature's every-day perfumes, exhaling floral incense familiar to us all, but from which we turn eagerly away to the more refined delicacy of fragrance of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water.

LAVENDER and MAGNOLIAS,

Rich with heavy perfume, but not invigorating nor refreshing, and so sweet that the sense of smell soon cloys, and longs for the simple freshness of Murray and Lanman's Florida Water.

SWEET BRIAR and CLOVER BLOOM.

Bringing memories of country life, and exhaling a perfume pure and delicate, but lac
